Positioned on a corner block in a peaceful riverside location, is this charming home offering endless opportunities. Whether you require a three- or four-bedroom home, dual living, room for a boat and caravan, the design of the home will cater for your personal requirements.

The current owners required a private dual living for an extended family member and converted the double garage into a studio, with a private entrance and a private yard. This is a fantastic design for the extended family or dual living.

The studio was designed in crisp white and neutral tones, and the kitchenette offers plenty of cupboard and bench
